OVERVIEW

Andrea Campbell Davison is a shareholder at Bean, Kinney & Korman with practice concentrations in bankruptcy and creditor's rights, and commercial and real estate loan transactions.

Andrea has represented a wide range of creditors and other non-debtor interested parties in all chapters of bankruptcy. Andrea regularly represents banks and other creditors in credit enforcement and collections, in and out of bankruptcy, and is experienced in the conduct of real estate foreclosures and other creditors' remedies. She also advises clients regarding loan workouts, financial restructuring and the risks associated with bankruptcy and financial distress. Andrea currently serves as a chapter 7 panel trustee for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Columbia.

Andrea is also experienced in commercial lending, finance, and loan transactions, including real estate loans, C&I loans and construction loans. She is adept at the performance of title and survey review, and other diligence in connection with the sale, acquisition or leasing of commercial real estate. She regularly provides legal advice to clients with respect to basic contracting and corporate issues.

Previously, Andrea was an associate attorney at an Am Law 200 law firm in Washington, D.C. in the Bankruptcy and Financial Restructuring Group.
