OVERVIEW

William "Billy" Banfield is an associate attorney at Bean, Kinney & Korman focusing his practice on land use and zoning, commercial real estate, leasing, and lending. He represents real estate developers, commercial lenders and borrowers, governmental authorities and entities, and commercial landlords and tenants.

Billy handles land use and zoning matters throughout Northern Virginia, including Fairfax County, Prince William County, Arlington County, and the City of Alexandria. His practice also includes real estate development, representing lenders and borrowers in loan transactions, and representing landlords and tenants in commercial real estate leases.

Before joining the firm as an associate, Billy worked at Bean, Kinney & Korman during his third year of law school. While in law school, he also worked for the Honorable Eleni Roumel of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims and Commissioner Summer Mersinger of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission.
